Meeting with members of the Advocacy Group for the Environmentally Sensitive

On June 17 at 2:00 p.m. in the Centennial Towers, Committee Room #1, 2nd Floor, 200 Kent and Laurier, there will be a small meeting between departmental officials and members of the Advocacy group for the Environmentally Sensitive.

The purpose of the meeting is educational and is being held on the referral of Garry Gurbin in conjunction with DOE roles in external relations and policy development including horizontal policy influence with other departments.

You may wish to attend yourself or delegate this to a representative(s) from your area. Ann Jarnet will call you to confirm attendance.

I look forward to our discussions with this group.
