To whom it may concern:

I've worked with Chris Brown for nearly two years. I know his abilities as a researcher, reporter, and current affairs writer-broadcaster. In every capacity I learned to trust him to make the contacts, get the facts, and present them clearly. He also has a good production sense and tries to get the most out of the presentation of every story.

Chris cares a great deal about his work, and he has the drive to make any project he undertakes a success. I have no hesitation about recommending him. If you need any more information please don't hesitate to call.

Sincerely,
